INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated (formerly Attkisson, Carter, Incorporated) as of December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011, and the related statements of income, changes in stockholders' equity, and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as established by the Auditing Standards Board (United States) and in accordance with the auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. The Company is not required to have, nor were we engaged to perform, an audit of its internal control over financial reporting. Our audit included consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated, at December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

Our audits have been made primarily for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the financial statements taken as a whole. The accompanying supplementary information is presented for analysis purposes and is not necessary for a fair presentation of the financial information referred to in the preceding paragraph. It has been subjected to the tests and other auditing procedures applied in the audits of the financial statements mentioned above and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements taken as a whole.

Note A: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Description of Business

Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated (formerly Attkisson, Carter & Company, Incorporated) is a broker/dealer engaged in investment brokerage activities principally in the Atlanta area. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of First Atlanta Financial Service Group, Inc. (First Atlanta Financial)

Furniture Fixtures and Depreciation

Furniture and fixtures were fully depreciated as of December 31, 2012

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considered all investment instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, and the reported revenues and expenses.

Concentration of Risks

The Company's clearing deposit and receivable from clearing organizations are located at two securities clearing houses.

Fair Value Measurements

Effective October 4, 2009, the Company adopted ASC 820-10 Fair Value Measurements, which value defines fair, establishes guidelines for measuring fair value and expands disclosures regarding fair value measurements. ASC 820-10 does not require any new fair value measurements but rather eliminates inconsistencies in guidance in various other accounting pronouncements. The adoption of ASC 820-10 did not have an impact on the Company's balance sheets, statements of income or cash flows.

Note A: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value are recorded in accordance with ASC 820-10, which clarifies that fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in a orderly transactions between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, ASC 820-10 establishes a three-tier hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

Level 1 Inputs-Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement data for identical assets and liabilities.

Level 2 Inputs-Inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are observable either directly or indirectly.

Level 3 Inputs-Unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which requires management to develop their own assumptions.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In June 2009, the FASB issued FASB ASC 105 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, which established the FASB ASC as the sole source of authoritative generally accepted accounting principles. The codification is not intended to change generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) but rather is expected to simplify accounting research by reorganizing current GAAP into topics. Pursuant to the provisions of FASB ASC 105, the Company has updated references to GAAP in its financial statements issued for the year ended December 31, 2010. The adoption of this statement did not impact the Company, financial position or results of operations.

The Company adopted the provisions of ASC 740-10 Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, on October 4, 2009. As a result of the implementation of ASC 740-10, the Company did not recognize any additions or reductions associated with uncertain tax positions and implementations did not have a material impact on its financial positions or results of operations for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Notes to Financial Statements
Years Ended December 31, 2012 and 2011

Note B: Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the net capital rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. The rules prohibit a broker/dealer from engaging in any securities transaction at a time when its "aggregate indebtedness" exceeds 15 times its "net capital", as those terms are defined by the rules.

At December 31, 2012 the Company's net capital of $174,769 exceeded its required net capital of $50,000 and results in a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital of 1.64 to one.

Note C: Income Taxes

The components of income tax expense are as follows:

Current	2011	2012
Federal	$ (35,000)	(69,000)
State	$ ( 6,000)	(8,000)
Total	$ (41,000)	(77,000)

The Company files a consolidated income tax return with its parent, First Atlanta Financial. Income. Taxes are allocated to the Company based on the taxes the Company would pay if it filed a separate return. A tax benefit has been recorded for the current and prior year loss.

Total tax expense reflected in the accompanying statements of operations differs from amounts computed at statutory rates principally because of certain expenses which are not tax deductible.

The last four years of the Company's tax returns are open for examination.

Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated
(formerly Attkisson, Carter & Akers, Incorporated)
Notes to Financial Statements
Years Ended December 31, 2012 and 2011

D: Related Party Transactions

The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of First Atlanta Financial Service Group, Inc. (First Atlanta Financial), which pays a substantial portion of the occupancy, equipment rental, communications, and other expenses, incurred directly or indirectly by the Company. The primary sources of funds available to First Atlanta Financial to pay these expenses are dividends and expense reimbursements from the Company. The Company paid $0 and $0 in dividends for the 2012 and 2011 respectively.

The Company paid $77,000 and $41,000 to First Atlanta Financial for income taxes allocated to the Company from the consolidated income tax returns for 2012 and 2011

The Company paid $360,000 and $360,00 in rent to First Atlanta Financial for the years 2012 and 2011.

The Company paid $420,000 and $420,000 in management fees to First Atlanta Financial for the years 2012 and 2011.

E: Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent through February 21, 2013, the date the financial statements were available to be issued and no adjustments or additional disclosures are necessary. Subsequent events after that date have not been evaluated.

Independent Auditors' Report on Internal Control Structure
Required by SEC Rule 17a-5

The Board of Directors
Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated for the year ended December 31, 2012, we considered its internal control structure, in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control structure.

Also, as required by rule 17a-5(g)(1) of the Securities and Exchange commission, we have made a study of the practices and procedures (including tests of compliance with such practices and procedures) followed by the Company that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in rule 17a-5(g) in making the periodic computations of aggregate indebtedness and net capital under rule 17a-(a)(11) and the procedures for determining compliance with the exemptive provisions of rule 15c3-3. We did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in making the quarterly securities examinations, counts, verifications and comparisons, and the recordation of differences required by rule 17a-13; in complying with the requirements for prompt payment of securities under section 8 of Regulation T of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System; or in obtaining and maintaining physical possession of control of all fully paid and excess margin securities of customers as required by rule 15c3-3, because the company does not carry security accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining an internal control structure and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of internal control structure policies and procedures and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraph and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the commission's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of an internal control structure and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that assets for which the company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Rule 17a-5(g) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraph.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control structure or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or irregularities may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or that the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

Our consideration of the internal control structure would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control structure that might be material weaknesses under standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of the specific internal control structure elements does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that errors or irregularities in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. However, we noted no matters involving the internal control structure that we consider to be material weaknesses as defined above.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the Commission to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures were adequate at December 31, 2012 to meet the commission's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the use of management, the Securities and Exchange Commission and other regulatory agencies which may rely on Rule 17a-5(g) under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and should not be used for any other purposes.

Independent Auditor's Report on Applying Agreed-Upon Procedures
Related to an Entity's SIPC Assessment Reconciliation

To the Board of Directors

Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated

Atlanta, Georgia

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7) to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the year ended December 31, 2012 which were agreed to by Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., SIPC, solely to assist you and the other specified parties in evaluating Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated's compliance with the applicable instructions of the General Assessment Reconciliation (Form SIPC-7). Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated's management is responsible for the Carter, Terry & Company, Incorporated's compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed and our findings are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments in Form SIPC-7 with respective cash Disbursement records entries in the cash disbursements journal noting no differences;
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited Form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2012 as applicable, with the amounts reported in Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2012, noting no differences;
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers comprised of brokerage settlement statements and a recomputation of SIPC-7 adjustments, noting no differences, and
4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers on a supporting the adjustments, noting no differences.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This reported is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
